Vintage Aircraft Flyover for Canada Day

The Alberta Aviation Museum/Edmonton Aviation Heritage Society, working with The Canadian Space agency, Discovery Air Hawk One, Edmonton Celebrates, Edmonton Garrison and Vintage Wings of Canada is pleased to announce a special Canada Day Treat for the Greater Edmonton Area.

Discovery Air F-86 Hawk One, piloted by Canada's Astronaut Chris Hadfield, will lead a contingent of 4-5 Vintage Wings of Canada Classic Canadian Military Aircraft on a fly over of Greater Edmonton Communities including:

- Edmonton and the Alberta Legislature
- St. Albert
- Edmonton Garrison
- Fort Saskatchewan
- Sherwood Park

... returning to Edmonton City Centre Airport on completion.

Take off will be at 2:00pm on July 1st, Canada Day from Edmonton City Centre Airport lead by Chris Hadfield in the Vintage Wings Discovery Air Hawk One F-86 Sabre; the aircraft will fly over the area one-afteranother from fastest to slowest. The aircraft will return to Edmonton City Centre Airport with the Hawk One F-86 Sabre estimated to return first at 2:45 to 3:00pm and the last landing approximately 3:30-3:45pm

Pictures of aircraft attached.

This unique opportunity has only been possible with the assistance of Transport Canada, Nav/Canada and the hard work of the Edmonton and area organizations involved.
