

Torch Relay

The 2012 Alberta Winter Games continues a proud tradition with the running of the ATCO Gas Torch Relay on Wednesday, February 8th.

The torch flame embodies the spirit of competition and camaraderie as the athletes strive to fulfill their hopes and dreams throughout the days of the Games.

The relay will take off from Greystone Centennial Middle School in Spruce Grove at 10:00 am on February 8th. A series of runners will wind their way through Spruce Grove going past a total of 6 schools before ending up at the Agrena/Central Park with a mini-cauldron lighting ceremony. From there, the runners will be bused to Stony Plain where they will start again at Memorial Composite High School and work their way north through town before finishing at Parkland County Centre with another mini-cauldron lighting ceremony.

The official torch lighting for the Games will take place during the Opening Ceremony on February 9th. Congratulations to the ATCO Gas Torch Relay participants for their part in carrying out the spirit of the Games!
