Michelle Wright will celebrate her 50th birthday on Leduc's Canada Day stage

--Free, country music concert will open with three local bands

Canadian country music star Michelle Wright will be the headline attraction in Leduc on Canada Day. It will be an extra-special day for the Juno-award winning Wright as she will be celebrating her 50th birthday on July 1.

Opening acts for Wright include the Derina Harvey Band (Edmonton's Celtic rock group), Lethal Dose (from Millet), and Pure Artists (rising regional talent from Edmonton).

"The City of Leduc is delighted to stage a country music festival this Canada Day, completely free for the public to enjoy," says Leduc Mayor Greg Krischke. "Canada Day celebrations are growing larger each year in Leduc, and we anticipate this year will be no exception when news gets out about the quality of our stage acts led by Michelle Wright."

Here is the schedule of Canada Day stage activities at Wm. F. Lede Park:

- 3:30 p.m. – 5:15 p.m. Pure Artists
- 5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. Lethal Dose
- 7 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Derina Harvey Band
- 9 p.m. – 10:30 p.m. Michelle Wright
- 10:30 p.m. – 12:30 a.m. outdoor movie
- 11 p.m. fireworks display
