Rock the Rails 2011 band line-up announced – Leduc’s free outdoor youth event showcases arts and athletics

Rock the Rails 2011 is one of the largest outdoor youth events in Alberta. The outdoor festival at Leduc’s skateboard park features skateboarding and BMX competitions, a battle of the bands and extreme athletic activities. New to this year’s line-up is a second entertainment stage featuring hip-hop artists, soloists and disc jockeys (DJs).

WHAT: Rock the Rails 2011

WHERE: Leduc Skateboard Park

WHEN: Aug. 25, 2011 (5 – 9 p.m.)

COST: Free

“Rock the Rails was created in 2009. It provides youth from Leduc and the region to showcase their many talents from athletics to the arts,” says Leduc’s Mayor Greg Krischke. “Our community is proud to offer youth a free, fun and safe event that features different competitions all in one evening.”

The Battle of the Bands competition will be featured on the main entertainment stage with a line-up of nine local and regional bands. For 2011, the winning band will be awarded based on the judging panel and text-to-win. The panel scores each group picking the top three bands and voters can text choosing one of those three bands. The winning band receives the top prize of studio recording time worth $1,200. The band line-up for this year’s event is as follows:

1. Attention to the Wounded
2. Scaring Steven
3. Electra Complex
4. Smile For The Bullet
5. Crabs Ain’t Cool
6. The Vertigos
7. Fiction Smiles
8. Always On Top
9. Trophy Killer
