BACKGROUND

With the support of our volunteers, donors, and staff, the Canadian Liver Foundation has waged a battle against liver disease for over 40 years. For the sake of all Canadians living with or at risk of liver disease, we:

- promote liver health;
- raise public awareness and understanding of liver disease;
- raise funds for research;
- provide support to patients and their families;
- advocate for improved standards for prevention, diagnosis and treatment of liver disease.
