Kevin Karius Easter Seals Golf Tournament Celebrates 20 Years

EDMONTON – Albertans are gearing up for the 20th Annual Kevin Karius Easter Seals Celebrity Golf Classic on Wednesday, August 24, 2011 at the Belvedere Golf and Country Club. This year 165 golfers will be teeing off at 9:00 a.m. and enjoying a beautiful day of golf in support of Albertans with disabilities and special needs.

Kevin Karius, honorary chair is pleased that this tournament has been in the community for 20 years. Media and sports celebrities join each team to make the day very exciting for all involved.

The day concludes at 3:00 with a prime-rib dinner and live and silent auction. "A big thanks to the community for their wonderful support", says Kevin Karius, Sports Anchor, Global TV. "Wonderful donations have been made to make the auction an excellent fundraiser for Easter Seals Alberta".

Proceeds goes to help provide equipment for Albertans with disabilities, such as power wheelchairs, scooters, van and porch lifts, as well as Easter Seals Camp Horizon and Easter Seals McQueen Residence.

"Not only is the golf tournament a fun-filled day, it's all for a great cause, and this year Easter Seals Relay hopes to raise $80,000 to make a lifetime of difference in the lives of children, youth, and adults with disabilities and special needs in Alberta," says Darla Zuk, Events Manager of Easter Seals Alberta.
