'Edmonton the Musical' announces musician and band line-up

EDMONTON – Musicians and bands performing at Edmonton the Musical July 21-24 at Avenue Theatre, 9030 118 Avenue, have now been confirmed, said musical producer Cara Albo.

The 27 confirmed acts are: Zerbin, Cory Dee; Dear (your name here); Douglas Mitchell; Drowning Ophelia; Erica Viegas; Fendercase; Cara Albo; Greater Than Giants; Gurl; Heaviside; Jackson MacDonald; Jacqueline Ohm; Jake Ian and the Haymakers; JDML; Light Travels; Lisa Nicole Grace; Looking East; Owls By Nature; Paperplanes and Dragonboats; Red Shag Carpet; Se7enSided; Still Within; Tanner Gordon and the Unfortunates; The Flash Jam; The Greater Good and Tiff Hall..

"That's about a buck a band," said Albo. "There's everything from rock to pop to jazz, folk and hip hop. Really, there is something for everyone."

Interest from local performers was greater than expected.

"Unfortunately, we had to turn away some amazing talent wanting to perform." Albo said.

The musicians and bands, together with a group of Edmonton actors, will tell the story of a young man named Jake and his search for love in Alberta's capital city. The musical features familiar landmarks and communities throughout Edmonton.

Close to 400 tickets have already been sold for Edmonton the Musical and are available online at YEGLive.com or Blackbyrd Myoozik, 10442 82 (Whyte) Avenue, in Edmonton.
