-----For Immediate Release-----

Nature struggles to make her mark and mankind just seems to struggle.

Two separate artists take a different view of our present situation.

On Friday, September 9th at Harcourt House Artists' Run Centre Tikki Mulvilhill will talk about her installation, "Fire Successional". Rolling pieces of burnt debris leave chalky trails all over the floor of our main gallery. Visitors will experience an interaction with a forest in transition. Tiki's West Coast sensibilities become evident. It should make all involved think seriously about where we are all headed.

In the Front Gallery Kevin Friedrich will be showing three very large "Selected Works". These pieces take a dark and at the same time slightly whimsical look at the human need to produce somewhat questionable technology to face our often confusing future. It will be easy to get lost in these major works of art.

Tiki's talk will take place at 7:00 PM and the reception will run from 8:00 to 10:00. All of the events are open and free of charge. Harcourt House is located at 10215 – 112 Street.

Stay tuned for Artist in Residence, David Janzen's opening, "Pile Driver" on October 13th.
