THE RANCH RETURNS TO EDMONTON

EDMONTON- The Ranch Roadhouse is days away from the grand reopening on October 26th. Since The Ranch closed nearly 2 years ago, fans of partying country have been asking for its return and their wish has been granted.

Opening just in time for Halloween and CFR, The Ranch kicks off their official reopening with Buckwild Wednesdays, a former Wednesday night staple in Edmonton. Not only can country fans near and far party with them on Wednesday, they are also giving one lucky person the VIP experience at the official grand reopening. All contest details can be found on the Ranch Facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/TheRanchEdmonton>.

There is plenty to more to come from The Ranch. To stay up to date on everything happening follow The Ranch on Facebook and Twitter, and at <http://www.theranchroadhouse.com>

About The Ranch Roadhouse

One of Edmonton's beloved nightlife country party destinations is "Back In The Saddle" this October! Back in its original location at 6107 104 street. The Ranch caters to all country music fans young, old, and in between. Two steps above the rest, The Ranch offers a newly renovated dance floor, six full service bars, pool tables, 2 mechanical bulls, and of course hot new country music in amazing sound and full video! The massive 8,000 square foot room caters completely to all of the senses with crystal clear sound, state of the art lighting, numerous plasma TVs and giant projection screens. With a full service patio coming in the summer of 2012. Join us for Buckwild Wednesdays, 4x4 Fridays and Saturday Ladies Night.
